

RGL11 Utility Lanyard

RGL11

Accredited To: EN354 & EN355

Material: 12mm Kernmantle Rope

Fittings: Triple Action Karabiner Harness End and Double action on the outer anchorage point end.

Weight: 0.95kgs

Features: Velcro double sided tab fitted to karabiner, allows for temporary attachment to harness during climbing

Features:

- Sewn terminations covered with protective heat shrink
- Fitted with triple action karabiner for added safety
- Karabiner connected with nylon thimble for ease of operation
- Velcro double sided tab fitted to karabiner, allows for temporary attachment of lanyard to harness during climbing
- Triple action hook provides quick and extra safe connection to harness 'D' ring & double action on outer end allows for quick connection to approved EN795 anchorage point.
- Additional label sewn inside Velcro pocket to allow for entering user details
- Nylon Kernmantle static rope has high energy absorption and exceptional resistance to abrasion
- Rope strength in excess of 40kN and meets the requirements of EN 1891
- Available with different hook/ karabiner options as required
- Can be attached direct to suitable anchorage point or can be choked around pole or similar structure

Fully approved, and used extensively by major utility company